Belief That Supreme Court Justice Will Grant Writ Which Will Give Brandt His Freedom.

The investigation into the case of Foulke E. Brandt, the Schiff burglar, was suddenly adjourned this afternoon when after several hours' effort and much legal bickering De Lancey Nicoll, attorney for Mortimer L. Schiff, was unable to get the consent of Commissioner Hand to hear the story of Mr. Schiff, Mrs. Schiff and Howard Gans. The efforts of Mr. Nicoll to have Mr. and Mrs. Schiff and Mr. Gans testify before the Commissioner appointed by Gov. Dix was warmly opposed by District-Attorney Whitman and Attorney-General Carmody, who argued that the appearance of these persons as witnesses might make them immune from future proceedings.
